Telling stories of heroism and horror, of a night passed on the docks, many with scant apparel and all with scant food, refugees began to arrive in Boston from Old Orchard Beach during today.

Over 500 persons came to Boston on one special and three regular trains. They recount pathetic tales of losses of jewels, keepsakes and clothing, tell how the night was passed in the open and breakfast was prepared on the beach.

These are the stories told BOSTON AMERICAN reporters:

"I never saw a fire spread with such frightful rapidity," said John T. Kenney, of Forest Hills, who arrived on the first relief train with his wife from Old Orchard.

“We had just finished eating supper at the home of a friend of mine, and the neighbors were gathered around the piazza when we heard the cry of fire. I was the first to get up and rush to my son's house to see what excitement, but nobody thought at that time that there was anything serious about it.”

“The fire department of old Orchard was called, and the firemen, under the leadership of their captain, William J. Keeney, they were absolutely incapable of coping with the fire. It did not take me long to realize that the fire was beyond control, and that the only way of going to reach the Fiske house, and we were going to get there, was to go by the beach, and take them away from the beach, where we thought they would be safe from the danger.”

“I tell you we were glad to see relief come in the shape of that train this morning. I was glad to see it, because I was going to get away from that scene, and I think that is the opinion of everyone who was affected by it in such a terrible way, they could depart.”

BOSTON PRIEST AND POLICE CAPTAIN AID
VICTIMS OF FIRE

Fought to Rush in Flames.

"Everybody was hurrying to and fro. I saw one man fighting frantically to get into the Emerson House which was on fire, and another man, who was carrying a lot of feet into the air and lighting up the beach for miles. This man had a valuable paper in his room, and he nearly lost it. He was very brave, and he saw the big hotel slowly reduced to ashes.

"It seemed as though the fire broke out in the middle of the night. When the apparatus from Portland and the fire engine from the city arrived at Court square station and the Rev. Father Harkins of St. Augustine's Church, Boston, both did valiant work saving property and helping people at the Old Orchard fire.

Hotelmen arriving on the first special train from Old Orchard at 10:20 today told something of what the Boston police captured.

"J. J. Bodenchick, son of Lieutenant Bodenchick, of the Boston police station, one of the arrivals on the first special, said:

[illegible]

By Long Distance Telephone to the Boston American.

OLD ORCHARD, Aug. 16.—While 10,000 people, who were forced to leave Old Orchard Beach to-day because of the fire that laid waste hotels and cottages and did other damage estimated at a million dollars, were jamming all outgoing trains, twice that number of curiosity seekers flocked to the scene of the great conflagration.

William Parsons, chairman of the Board of Selectmen, called a meeting of the town officials to-day to take measures to prevent any suffering because of the loss of property. Many persons were practically ruined because of the prohibitive insurance rates. Chairman Parsons said, however, that he had made the rounds of the burned district and that he did not believe that it would be necessary to ask for outside help.

"Because of the fact," he said, "that the business section was practically uninjured we have enough provisions to take care of the situation. I do not think that outside help will be needed. We will take prompt measures to prevent any suffering from lack of food."

Boston Priest Gave Alarm

The man who was instantly killed, being beheaded by a flying section of post struck by an exploding tank of gas, has not yet been identified. Near him stood the Rev. Rufus H. Jones, pastor of the Trinity Church of Saco, Me. He was also hit by the section of post and very badly injured. Melvin Morrill, an engineer of the Boston & Maine, and W. B. Emerson were seriously burned while trying to save property. All were taken to the Blodgett Hospital, where they remain.

SCORE MAYORITZGERALD.
The local fire department, of which Louis Fowler is chief, expressed resentment today at the accusation. "Butler has no command of things without any authority to do so. They waste many uncomplimentary remarks about Boston's fire department," he said.

Mayor Zerk said people slept on the beach at 12:30 o'clock this morning until daylight. They were there through smoke and fire. "I am very sorry," he said. "I am sorry to be allowed to rest on the door of a car that is burning. I am sorry that I started to leave but thanked the cottage people for their kindness."

"You are making the unforgiving response, and the man paid it."

$3,000 GONE; ARREST CLERK OF TREASURY

When John Warren Hastings, one of the 420 Treasury street taxi criers at the U.S. Treasury since 1964, returned home today from a vacation and appeared for work he was placed under arrest by United States Marshal Robert B. Bland, the chief of the Treasury of $3,000,000 mutilated money from a package of $50,000 which had been prepared for shipment to Washington on June 1.

Secret Service Operator Frank Burke of New York has been working on the strange case for weeks. He has been assisted by Assistant Chief of the Service Bureau, who spent several days in Boston last week.

On June 7 there was $307,000 of ill-secured cash embarked for New York at this end to be shipped to Washington to be released. When the unsecured money was being shipped, the Boston office was on its guard against any possibility of loss on its place of unsecured money, or else the amount is credited at Washington.

It is believed that the country is now detecting bad money.

CAPTAIN HICHBORN, ASSESSOR, DEAD

Captain Samuel Hichborn, a principal assessor of the city of Boston since 1897, died early today from heart failure at his home, 100 West Street, after a long illness. He was 66 years of age. He was a member of the Common Council in 1883 and 1884. Captain Hichborn was born in 1827 in New York.

and sorted by James H. Vassar, specie clerk, and was turned over to Hastings, who was then in charge of the mint. It was the money taken in, in that city, during the year, 1898, and was valued at $20,000. Three of these gold certificates were found.

At the purchase of $105,000 from which the $2,000 was taken had seven seals on it, and the balance of the money was all stuck with sealings. When the bills are sealed, they are put in a box with sealings, with seals unbroken and paper uncut.

GENERAL STRIKE ORDER STARTS BITTER BATTLE

NATIONAL CHIEF SMALL CALLS ON TELEGRAPHERS TO QUIT KEYS.

CHICAGO, Aug. 16.—The general strike of the Commercial Telegraphers' Union, involving 10,000 men and two cities is now on in all parts of the United States. President Small of the organization signed the general order early today. It was immediately faxed to all corners of the country. The order reads as follows:

"To All Commercial Telegraphers: The Associated Press and private and leased wires, not working under a union agreement, are hereby called upon to cease work immediately by authority of the president and general executive board of the Commercial Telegraphers' Union of America."

"S. J. SMALL, President."

This was the beginning of the mighty struggle that the union operators have waged for during the past few weeks.

2,000 Cheer Small.

Small arrived in Chicago at 6 o'clock last night, and was met at the depot by 2,000 cheering telegraphers and their organizers. He was given a hearty reception, and was carried a short distance on the shoulders of his admirers. Escorted by the bridge house, the telegraphers of the national organization, he immediately ordered the officers of the union leaders to close their offices of the union leaders to close their offices. For six hours the general strike order was under consideration. President Small and other union leaders directly involved in the situation.

At the moment the decision was announced, the telegraphers of the country. The long discussion was primarily upon the question of maintaining the national leaders favoring peace.

At 1 o'clock this morning Small attached his signature to the general order which had been prepared in advance, and the news was instantly spread in all directions.

Railway Men Attend.

The last that Messrs. Quick, Peckham & Banner, of the Order of Railway Telegraphers, attended the meeting, was representative for many reasons that the railway operators would be involved in the strike. Secretary Quick, on coming from the conference room, declared his men would be called out.

"We will certainly live up to our contract with the general managers of the various railroads," he said. "It has taken us years to establish some of these arrangements, and we do not feel like breaking them."

President Small's action in authorizing a general strike has greatly increased the prestige of the union among the operators. Armed with powerful moral and financial support, Mr. Small is confident that his organization will win its demands in the present strike. The telegraph companies cannot handle the business of this country without the members of this organization, and the members of the union will not return to work until they agree to give an adequate compensation for their services.

23,000 Men Out.

The first authorized statement of the scope of the strike and the grievances of the telegraphers says there are between 25,000 and 30,000 operators employed by the two big companies in the United States. More than 25,000 operators have decided to leave their keys in the general strike. It is estimated that thirty per cent of the operating forces in union cases are on strike. Most of the women employed in this city receive less than $10 a week, the maximum salary paid women being $14. The standard salaries paid men operators are placed at from $16 to $20 a week. They are said to be able to turn this into a living wage only by working continuously.

NEW YORK, Aug. 16.—The most striking New York victory is the capitulation of the big brokerage houses, which have been debating over signing the $10 a week minimum wage schedule demanded by the union members of the Wall Street Chapter. Apparently all of the big brokerage houses are now in line, and will be given their usual service over leased wires.

Near a Walkout.

A walkout was narrowly averted in the telegraph department of J. S. B. & Co., which employs from twenty to thirty men. The firm refused to sign until it learned that arrangements had been made for a walkout and the granting of their terms.

They finally signed the schedule and the telegraphers continued at work.

As the result of the general strike order issued by President Small from Chicago, the officials of the union at the local headquarters were enthusiastic today, claiming much. The officers of the two big companies and the Associated Press, however, seemed to be indifferent.

"This order now makes that all the telegraphers who have been holding out, will walk out. It also means that a great portion of the clerical forces, which have organized, will strike," said Secretary M. H. Hetherly of the local union today.

This business, the president of President Chicago that the strike is over and the complete abandonment of the statement of Deputy President Thomas of the union that we have just begun.

Must Quit Keys Today.

"Every Associated Press operator must leave his key today or be declared to the union. We expect every man to strike. We are prepared to fight this strike out to the finish, and the more statements the officials of the companies give out, saying it is over, the better it is for us when the public is confronted with the actual state of affairs. We cannot lose."

McDonough said the union committee would hold another conference today with State Attorney General Jackson in their effort to have an article inserted in their charter in the future, that the provision of a general investigation of the proposition of being declared a union.

Russell, chairman of the Board of Managers, said: "You can be sure that we have a few words up our sleeves too. The Western Union and the Postal are not making public all that they are doing, and neither are we. This is a great history-making battle, and we are in it for the fight of our lives."

"Strike Means Nothing."

Superintendent Banks of the Eastern Division of the Western Union today said: "This general strike order means absolutely nothing, so far as we are concerned. Some of our chief operators have walked out, and some of them intend to do so far as we know."

Vice President Nally of the Postal Company gave out the following statement:

"The general strike order means nothing to us. It is a waste of time. Some of our men are walking out today."

ST. LOUIS.

Aug. 16. A 1907 game series will be played here this afternoon between the Pilgrims and the Browns. When the teams clashed recently in the Hub, each won two games.

Greatly encouraged by the great showing of his men against Chicago, Manager McQuire of the victors feels confident they will win at least two of the games here.

After leaving this city the Pilgrims will go to Detroit, where they expect to have a hard time of it against the Tigers. George Winter will travel for the Browns today, while Harry Haines, who was the only pitcher on the local staff able to beat the Browns on their own grounds, will probably be sent to the mound by Manager McAleer. The series will close tonight for sixth place, which Boston holds by one point.

Manager McQuire has suspended Calhoun Ambrose indefinitely for being out of playing condition.

ED KARGER OF CARDINALS

Here is a picture of star outpaw of Cardinals, who beat Doves again yesterday. Last Sunday he didn't allow a Boston man reach first in seven innings, when game was called.

SULLIVAN TO MEET PAPKE AT LAWRENCE

One of the best ball cards ever arranged in New England was made yesterday when Tommy Sullivan squared articles to box Bill Papke of Hingham at Lawrence, Mass., Labor day afternoon.

Papke has beaten for last that has been brought against him, and he will have the advantage of the amateur bout.

Men like Tony Caponi, Johnny Carroll, Billy Rhodes and others equally well known to fans have all been beaten by Papke.

It is with confidence, however, that Tommy Sullivan has welcomed the chance to face Papke. It gives him the chance he has long desired to test the superior range of the ladder of fame. If he wins from Papke, he will be assured he will win in fifteen rounds.

For the last time the Doves will make a mad effort to-day to dump the Cardinals in the final game of the season.

The Doves reach effort straight defeat or out of the fight at fourteen rounds to be seen in this faraway place.

Rehearsal to be held at 10 o'clock. The Cardinals will be in the field at 11 o'clock. The Doves will be in the field at 12 o'clock.
